IV. Reading & Cloze Test: 30%

Kobe Bean Bryant was born on August 23, 1978, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Named (1) a city in Japan, Bryant is the son of former NBA player Joe "Jellybean" Bryant.

In 1984, after ending his NBA career, the elder Bryant took the family to Italy, where he played in the Italian League. Growing up in Italy alongside two athletic older sisters, Shaya and Sharia, Bryant was an avid player of (2) basketball and soccer. When the family returned to Philadelphia in 1991, Bryant joined the Lower Merion High School basketball team, leading it to the state championships four years (3). With an eye on the NBA, he also started working out with the 76ers.

Though he boasted good grades and high SAT scores, Bryant decided to go (4) to the NBA from high school. He was selected by the Charlotte Hornets with the 13th overall pick of the 1996 NBA draft and was subsequently (5) to the Los Angeles Lakers.

Although the Lakers struggled after O'Neal left in 2004, Bryant performed (6). He scored 81 points against the Toronto Raptors in January 2006, the second-highest single-game mark in NBA history, and led the league in scoring that year and the next.

Bryant played on both the 2008 and 2012 U.S. Olympic teams, winning (7) gold medals with teammates Kevin Durant, LeBron James and Carmelo Anthony, among several other top players.

On April 13, 2016, Bryant dazzled a (8) crowd at the Staples Center and fans everywhere in the last game of his career, scoring 60 points and leading the Lakers to a win against the Utah Jazz. It was Bryant's sixth 60-point game of his career.

After the game, Bryant spoke to the crowd. "I can't believe how fast 20 years went by," he said. "This is absolutely crazy ... and to be standing at center (9) with you guys, my teammates behind me, appreciating the journey that we've been on — we've been through our ups, been through our downs. I think the most important part is we all stayed together (10)."

On January 26, 2020, Bryant was (11) a Sikorsky S-76 helicopter that crashed in the Los Angeles suburb of Calabasas. Nine people, including Bryant and his 13-year-old daughter Gianna "Gigi," died. The helicopter was on its way from Orange County to Thousand Oaks, California where Bryant was scheduled to (12) a tournament game at Mamba Sports Academy.
